Conflict of Interest

Our Conflict of Interest applies to all users of our services and relevant parties to our official Terms and Conditions of Use. This procedure aims to identify and prevent conflict of interest between the Clients and us or between one Client and another.

All parties involved must comply with the procedures when filing or submitting their corresponding concern concerning the conflict of interest. Our team will assess and manage the submitted concern if such a matter is relevant to our official Terms and Conditions of Use.

If you intend to file for a conflict of interest, you must provide your full name, trading account number, registered email, and important information about such matter and send it to our official email address. You acknowledge that we may require additional documents and information if deemed necessary to resolve such conflict. We may resolve and take the appropriate actions to resolve any identified conflicts of interest. However, we may reject or cancel any conflict of interest on reasonable grounds, especially if such conflict might result in further conflicts.

We reserve the right to hold, cancel, and terminate any ongoing activity in your trading account if we identify a conflict or once a filed conflict of interest is accepted. If any identified or received conflict arises between or among the parties involved in the Terms and Conditions of Use or other agreements or contracts, we may disclose such conflict so the respective party can act accordingly.

To identify the types of conflict of interest that occur during the provision of investment and ancillary services, which may negatively affect your interests, we take into account whether the Company or the relevant person is in any of the following situations as a result of providing investment services, ancillary services, or investment services:

- a. The Company or any of its employees is likely to make a financial profit or avoid a financial loss at the Client's expense.
- b. A Client is likely to make a financial profit or avoid a financial loss at the expense of another Client;
- c. The Company or any of its employees or a client receives or is intended to receive an endorsement related to a service provided to the Client by a third party in the form of money, goods, or services, apart from the standard commission or fee for that particular service.
- d. In case of identifying conflicts, we may conduct the following measures without limitation:
- e. Prevent or manage the exchange of information between the relevant parties involved in the conflict of which exchange of such information may affect the interests of one or more Clients negatively.
- f. Oversee the relevant parties with the primary duty of providing any service to Clients with interests that may conflict.
- g. Remove all connections between the remuneration of a Client engaged in an activity and the remuneration of the other Client or profit made by such Client engaged in another activity in which conflict of interests have arisen concerning those activities.
- h. Restrict or limit any party from exercising inappropriate influence over the way of any activity, service, or investment.
