KYC Policy

Our Know-Your-Customer ("KYC") Policy and procedures are established in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations of our jurisdiction, which require financial institutions to conduct identity verifications for the users of our services. We have implemented procedures that all Company users must strictly comply with to provide you with our services. This policy also aims to prevent illegal activity within our properties, including money laundering.

As our client, you acknowledge and accept that we will collect particular details and personal information from you, including the required documentation described hereinafter. You agree that you must comply with submitting the following information and documentation as part of using our services.

Basic information will be provided upon your registration and opening an account with us. The basic information includes your full name, date of birth, country and address, contact number, and email address. We may also ask for your occupation, financial capabilities, trading experience, and source of income to ensure that our services are appropriate and suitable for you. The additional set of information may be obtained after you have registered with us. Moreover, you acknowledge that we may obtain and collect certain information as obliged by our affiliated banks and PSPs upon registration or initiating any financial transaction in your trading account.

You understand and agree that you will submit and complete certain documents to certify your identification and use of our services. In compliance with such procedure, you must submit copies of, without limitation, A.) your proof of identification, such as a government-issued ID, passport, or driver's license; B.) your proof of address or residence, such as a bank statement, residential certificate, government-issued lease contracts, or utility bill not older than six months; C.) and copy of the credit card or debit card if such was used for any financial transaction. In addition, if you used a credit card or debit card, you must submit its front copy according to the instructions of your country or the state legislation in displaying card numbers. You must also submit the back copy with its CVV covered and the card numbers covered, similar to how the front copies were.

The submission of documents can be uploaded to your trading account or sent to our official email address. You acknowledge that we will only accept documents in JPG/JPEG, PNG, and PDF formats without password protection.

All document copies must be clear and legible. Therefore, you must ensure that your information and document copies are correct, accurate, and complete. Furthermore, you acknowledge that if the documents you submit are suspected or proven to be forged, we reserve the right to take legal action against such an occurrence.

Risk Disclaimer: Online trading involves substantial risk and may not be suitable for all investors. The high level of leverage available in the market can amplify both potential gains and losses, leading to significant financial exposure. Market prices are influenced by various factors, including economic, political, and market conditions, which can change rapidly and unpredictably. Traders should carefully consider their risk tolerance and financial situation before engaging in trading. Before using the services offered by Luxtious, all users are required to acknowledge the associated risks. Additional information can be found in our Risk Disclosure Statement.
